

SENIOR THESIS OR SENIOR HONORS THESIS IN BIOCHEMISTRY

Research Proposal Form

(If this is an honors thesis, please circle "Honors" above.)

The research project for the Senior Thesis or the Senior Honors Thesis in Biochemistry requires approval of the supervising thesis advisor and your academic advisor, in advance of beginning actual laboratory work. Please submit 1 copy of your research proposal to the Student Services Suite, 1142 Biochemistry Building, 420 Henry Mall, as soon as possible after selecting a laboratory and a project, but in any case no later than the last working day of September or at end of the third week of classes for Spring or Summer semesters. Be sure to read through this entire packet and note that your final thesis is due in our office no later than three weeks before the last day of classes of the semester in which you are to complete your thesis.

Name: _____ Student ID: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

Name, address, phone number, email of supervising thesis advisor, (Professor in whose lab project will be done):

Title of thesis project: _____

Semesters and year(s) in which thesis work is to be conducted: _____

Date of submission of thesis proposal: _____

I have received a grant from L&S or CALS Honors Program. yes no.

Thesis proposal (1 copy): Attach a description of your proposed research, including (a) experimental plan, (b) methods and procedures to be used, (c) expected results, and (d) significance of the work. Be sure to include relevant literature citations as appropriate. The proposal should not exceed 3 pages to which you may append graphs or tables if desired.

.....

PROPOSAL APPROVAL

The attached thesis proposal has been read and approved by me, the supervising thesis advisor.

Date

Thesis Advisor

The attached thesis proposal is approved by the Undergraduate Biochemistry Program.

Date

Biochemistry Undergraduate Chair